

Subjective questions on MRT-09

Q1: What is the function of Mechanical Department in Indian Railways? What duties and responsibilities are assigned to the supervisor of this department?

Q2: What are the various hierarchies of management in Indian Railways? What are the main functions of the Lower Management?

Q3: How shall you ascertain the reliability of the Rolling Stock maintained by you? Describe the role of maintenance in enhancing availability of Rolling Stocks for line service?

Q3: What is leadership? Why is it essential for an organisation. Describe the various variants of leadership in a society?

Q4: Describe the various qualities that a successful leader should possess. Cite some apt examples to support your answer.

Q5: What are the various modes of communication? How communication ability is essential for a leader.

Q6: Write a letter to the firm whose new bearing has failed prematurely. Use fictitious nomenclatures.

Q7: What is the role of language, computers and mobile phones in expediting a communication process? In the supervisory function, How shall you make the best use of the same?

Q8: What is motivation? What is its relationship with performance?

Q9: What are the various modes of motivation applied on the employees? Which one of these you think is most effective?

Q10: How Indian Railways keeps its employees motivated to achieve the higher targets of passenger and freight traffic?

Q11: Name the prominent theories of motivation? Explain the theory of motivation propounded by Abraham Maslow.

Q12: As a supervisor how shall you keep your subordinates motivated to increase productivity of your section/bay?

Q13: What do you understand by Time Management? What are its implications in optimizing the performance of the employees?

Q14: How shall you incline your subordinates for a good a Time Management? What type of habits and attitudes should they possess to reduce the time taken in operations?

Q15: What do you know about the steps taken by Top Management of Indian Railways in recent years to reduce the travel time of the trains?

Q16: What is energy? How many types of energies organisations generally use to run their operations? What measures can be taken to minimize their wastage?

Q17: State the various measures to reduce the consumption of diesel in the diesel engine?

Q18: What is the importance of electricity in the modern industrial world? State the general measures to save Electricity.

Q19: 'Energy saved is energy produced'. Explain the slogan in its entire context.

Q20: What is the role of vigilance in maintaining integrity and probity in the employee? What type of improprieties does the Vigilance Department investigate?