Sub.—Withholding of Special Contribution to P.F.

It has been noticed that in case of resignation where the reasons for the resignation are held to be not good and sufficient from the point of view of Administration the Special Contribution to Provident Fund of the employee is withheld without obtaining orders of the Controlling Office viz. the General Manager in the case of Class III and IV staff. In this context, it may be clarified that the Divl. Supdts, etc. have been delegated powers only for the purpose of sanctioning Spl. Contribution to Provident Fund and as such powers to withhold S.C. to P.F. continue to vest with the General Manager.
