Sub.—Refusal of L.P.R. to Railway Servants.

Reference instructions contained in Railway Board's O.M. No. E(G)58PW2-1, dated the 13th October, 1958 on the above noted subject wherein it was emphasized that refusal of leave should not become a more routine and that leave should be refused only in clear cases of public interest and after full consideration is given to the merits of each case. A review of cases of refused leave on the basis of figures furnished by the Railways reveals that leave is still being refused rather liberally. The Railway Board, therefore, desire that the instructions referred to should be strictly followed in all cases of refusal of leave preparatory to retirement and the concession of refused leave is allowed in really deserving cases only.
