Particulars, Function and Duties of Organisation

The Electrical department looks after planning, operation & maintenance of all electrical assets of Northern Railway. Various assets includeElectric Locomotives, Diesel Locomotives, Traction & Distribution, General Electrical Services.

Nominated maintenance schedules are given to all the electrical assets at various maintenance Depots and Workshops for their efficient and safe working.

The Electrical Department is also coordinating with the Railway Board, RDSO and various Production units regarding their requirements and following various policies issued by them.

This department peruses the electrification of Railway on Northern Railway being done by RVNL/RITES/CORE and takes over for runningof electric loco when works are technically complete in all safety aspects. This department is also associated with passenger amenities works like provision of water coolers, lifts and escalators on Railway stations. Electric department is using solar panels widely for illumination purpose.